MESSAGE

I am delighted to know that the PG Department of Biochemistry, DG Vaishnav College, Arumbakkam is organizing the INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON BIOSCIENCES - TRENDS IN MOLECULAR MEDICINE on 7th & 8th February 2012.

I congratulate the students and teachers of the department for organizing the Conference at the international level. I appreciate the staff members of the department for taking a giant leap towards the new venture. This Conference will be helpful for the students and participants to familiarize about the recent trends in Molecular Medicine.

I wish the programme to have a great success.
